

Assignment: Dr. Chang! The Surgeon

Dr. Chang is a famous Neuro surgeon in Japan.
To attend a conference he went to America for a week,
when he came back his assistant said, “last week when you were not here many patients came for your advice”.
Then Dr. said “Okay, please make a weekly report of the people who came last week”

Consider yourself as his “technical” assistant, and implement a program that fulfills Dr. Chang’s requirement.
